Second circular • 150 years anniversary meeting

In 2021 it is 150 years since the Geological Society of Sweden was founded. We will commemorate this by organising an anniversary meeting to be held in Uppsala 17–19 August 2021.

Our ambition is that the meeting will be of interest to all geoscientist that are active in Sweden or that have an interest in various aspects of Swedish geoscience.

We are aware of the current pandemic, and the fact that we at this stage don't know how it will affect us later during the year. However, we hope that a physical geoscientific meeting will be possible.

Important dates

April 30, 2021 Deadline for abstract submission.
July 30, 2021 Deadline for registration.
August 17–19, 2021 Meeting takes place in Uppsala.

Venue

The meeting will be held at the Department of Earth Sciences, Uppsala University and the Geological Survey of Sweden, both located at Villavägen in Uppsala, close to the city centre.
